All Al-Anon meetings welcome family and friends affected by someone else's drinking.
OW: These meetings welcome family and friends affected, as well as observers (professionals, medical personnel, students, reporters, etc.) interested in learning about the effects of alcohol on the family.
BKS: Book study

Meetings designated as Beginner's Meeting may be attended by anyone. Newcomers may attend any meetings; however, they may find it beneficial to attend a Beginner's Meeting. In most cases, group names (in bold type) don't indicate topic, format, book study, etc. It is simply an identifier to distinguish it from other groups. Some groups meet in churches; Al-Anon has no religious affiliation with these churches but is grateful for the use of the building.
